REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES

Perform investigative and supervision responsibilities for offenders/defendants in both general and high-risk/specialized cases. Conduct investigations, prepare reports, and make recommendations for the court in general, high-risk, and/or specialized cases by interviewing offenders/defendants and their families and collecting background data from various sources. An integral part of this process is the interpretation and application of policies and procedures, statutes, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures, and may include U.S. Sentencing Guidelines, Monographs, and relevant case law in their specialization. Recommends district-wide policies for location monitoring cases (including alert protocols, backup training, and coverage plans). Monitors assigned location monitoring caseload to ensure compliance with program directives and court orders.

Serve as a resource and expert to the court, line officers, and staff in screening and classification of offenders, Bureau of Prisons and Residential Reentry Center pre-release and re-entry cases, and offender workforce development. Guide, advise, train, and make recommendations to other officers, the court, and other individuals in cases involving area of specialization. Assist in developing policies and proposals to provide needed services. Train line officers on identification and treatment of offenders/defendants requiring intensive supervision needs. Participate in on-going training and educational opportunities to further develop and/or enhance techniques and skills relating to investigation and supervision practices of offenders/defendants in areas of specialization. Maintain personal contact with offenders/defendants through office and community contacts and by telephone. Investigate employment, sources of income, lifestyle, and associates to assess risk and compliance. Address substance abuse, mental health, domestic violence, and similar problems and implement the necessary treatment or violation proceedings through assessment, monitoring, and counseling. Analyze and resolve disputed issues involving offenders/defendants and present unresolved issues to the court for resolution. Assess offenders'/defendants' level of static risk, as well as acute and stable dynamic risk, and develop a blend of risk management strategies for controlling and addressing risk. Regularly provide reports, proposals, and recommendations for updates or amendments to conditions of supervision for this special offender population.

Serve as a resource and expert to the court, line officers, and staff in all areas related to location monitoring. Perform functions related to the managing of LM equipment inventory, installation of offenders/defendants on LM equipment, monitor tracks and respond to alerts and issues of noncompliance as required by policy. Perform functions related to remote alcohol testing as needed.

REQUIRED COMPETENCIES

Knowledge of resources, policies, procedures, and protocols in managing cases involving high-risk and/or specialized cases. Skill in supervising offenders/defendants with specialized needs/situations. Ability to provide guidance to line officers, the court, and other agencies regarding area of specialization. Knowledge of U.S. Sentencing Guidelines and related appellate case law. Knowledge of current research, programs, and practices regarding location monitoring and managing a specialized location monitoring caseload. Skill in training officers throughout the district in location monitoring practices. Skill in supervising offenders/defendants with specialized needs/situations. Ability to provide guidance to other officers, the court, and other agencies regarding location monitoring practices. Knowledge of how other judicial processes and procedures relate to the officer's roles and responsibilities. Knowledge of federal law and the criminal justice system particularly as it relates to federal probation and pretrial services in the areas of specialization, and parole policies and procedures. Knowledge of surrounding community and available community resources.

Knowledge of sentencing guidelines, statutes, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and applicable case law. Ability to apply changes in the law as appropriate. Knowledge of techniques in supervising offenders/defendants who are high-risk or have specialized needs. Skill in supervising offenders/defendants with specialized needs, risk assessment, and developing appropriate alternatives and sanctions to non-compliant behavior.

QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for the CL 29, the incumbent must have 3 years of specialized experience, and their experience must include 1 year as an U.S. Probation Officer.
